Our Story

The Dolce Mio Biscotti Story

At Dolce Mio Biscotti, every biscuit tells a story of tradition, family, and craftsmanship.

While our business was officially established in 2021, our journey began over 50 years ago. Our family first arrived in Australia in the 1970s, bringing with us the rich heritage of Italian biscuit-making. From the early days with Tevere Biscuit Company in Brunswick to a series of family-owned cake shops, we perfected our recipes through decades of dedication and passion. Today, our Melbourne-based factory in Thomastown continues this legacy with pride.

We remain family-owned and operated, committed to crafting continental-style biscuits and tarts with authenticity and care. Using only the finest ingredients – including premium Australian produce – we deliver products that reflect uncompromising standards of quality, flavour, and satisfaction. From our classic almond bread and shortbreads to festive seasonal creations, our range delights customers year-round.
